We are a Unicef Rights Respecting School

This policy links to the UN Convention on the Rights of the child:

Article 2 (non-discrimination) The Convention applies to every child without discrimination, whatever their ethnicity, gender, religion, language, abilities or any other status, whatever they think or say, whatever their family background.

Article 3 (best interests of the child) The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all decisions and actions that affect children.

Article 23 (children with a disability) A child with a disability has the right to live a full and decent life with dignity and, as far as possible, independence and to play an active part in the community. Governments must do all they can to support disabled children and their families.

Article 28 (right to education) Every child has the right to an education. Primary education must be free and different forms of secondary education must be available to every child. Discipline in schools must respect children's dignity and their rights. Richer countries must help poorer countries achieve this.

Article 29 (goals of education) Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures, and the environment.

Article 30 (children from minority or indigenous groups) Every child has the right to learn and use the language, customs and religion of their family, whether or not these are shared by the majority of the people in the country where they live.

Article 31 (leisure, play and culture) Every child has the right to relax, play and take part in a wide range of cultural and artistic activities.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all children, and expect our staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Free childcare criteria for 3 year olds (April 24)

Working parents of 3 and 4 year olds can be entitled to 30 hours of free childcare.

The 30 hours free childcare is only for 38 weeks of the year, not 48 weeks. This is equivalent to school term times.

The eligibility for the 30-hour free childcare is:

- Child will have their 3rd birthday before the start of the academic term.
- Both parents must be working – or if a single parent, then they must be working
- Each parent earns, on average, a weekly minimum equivalent to 16 hours at National

- Minimum Wage or National Living Wage.
- A joint parent family with one parent working (a minimum equivalent to 16 hours at National Minimum Wage or National Living Wage), and one parent unable to work as they are an official carer or in receipt of disability benefit?
- A lone parent who is working a minimum equivalent to 16 hours at National Minimum Wage or National Living Wage?
- Parents must have an annual income of less than £100,000.
- Live in England
- If one parent of the couple is not working, or both parents are not working then the family will still be eligible for their free 15 hours. However if one parent isn't working because they are an official carer (e.g. receiving benefits relating to being a carer) or they are receiving disability benefits, and the other parent is working, the government has stated it "intends to make provision" to support these families.
- Parents are also eligible if they are self-employed or on a zero hour contract, as long as they earn at least the equivalent of 16 hours at the National Minimum Wage.
- The offer of 30 hours can be shared between providers.

At Goodway Nursery school, our 30-hour offer can be split as follows;
Monday – Wednesday 15 hours, Wednesday – Friday 15 hours. We cannot split the offer of 30 hours in any other combination, as this would block funded places.
