Perry Barr Families

Many children, young people and their families are facing challenges as a result of Covid-19. Community groups and support services are working hard to meet local needs. There are also hardship funds available to support families who need short-term help.

Please contact Spurgeons at Lime Tree Children's Centre for more information about support and funds available for families and groups in Aston, Birchfield, Handsworth, Handsworth Wood, Holyhead, Kingstanding, Lozells, Oscott and Perry Barr

We can support young people, families, schools and community workers with:

Information and a directory of local support available during the Covid-19 period

(including food, wellbeing, debt, parenting and play)

Applying for up to £150 resilience fund grants for families in need

Making a self or professional support referral
